Daily, the monks of Pullahari (Nepal) and Kagyu Thekchen Ling (India) monasteries share the merits of their prayers with benefactors and all sentient beings. The daily prayers are open for sponsorships. The offerings received are utilized for the welfare and education of the monks.

THE BENEFIT OF PRAYERS

The purpose of having Prayers done for yourself or someone else is to avert and clear obstacles that prevent worldly personal contentment and spiritual progress. Generally there are three kinds of obstacles: worldly ones affecting our daily lives due to problems in relationships, business, etc.; inner ones affecting our emotional states, physical and mental health; and secret ones affecting our spiritual progress. Prayers bless and pacify the mind of the dying and can guide the deceased’s consciousness to higher states of rebirth and even liberation.

BENEFIT OF SPONSORING PRAYERS

Sponsoring prayers benefits the sponsor and those to whom they are dedicated. The accumulation of merit of faith, good motivation, generosity combined with the blessings of the Three Jewels and the enlightened deity brings to fulfilment the aspiration and intention of benefiting oneself and others.
